JIMMY ADAMSON'S VIEWPOINT

Leeds United will be joining the Welsh Football Association in making the strongest possible appeal against the four year ban imposed by UEFA on Byron Stevenson.

Byron is not a vicious player and has a good disciplinary record for his club and country which makes the severity of the sentence even more difficult to understand. The alleged incident in Turkey is completely out of character for Byron and from what I understand neither the referee nor linesmen at the game saw whatever incident took place.

Unless the sentence is changed, the ban will severely cut into Byron's international career and I fail to see why it should also affect any commitments the club may have in Europe over the next four years.

It is impossible to predict how successful an appeal will be at this stage but we intend doing everything possible to influence a change by UEFA.

The news that the Football League is to hold a series of meetings to discuss the way the game is heading in the 'eighties is encouraging to people like myself who are worried by the economic problems the League game faces.

I've always believed that paying cash on the nose for all transfer deals would help control fees and I am delighted to see that this is one of the ideas the League has on its list for discussion.

I've been alarmed in the last few months to see the number of circulars from clubs listing players available for transfer and these are not just youngsters. This week I saw a list sent out by a First Division club containing five players available for transfer and four of these are well established first team men.

At the end of the season it seems obvious that due to financial pressures many clubs will drastically reduce the number of players on their staffs. This is a worrying situation for everyone connected with the game.

Curbing the ridiculous levels that transfer fees have reached would go a long way towards solving the game's financial problems.

LEAGUE LAY OFF

This afternoon's clash at Elland Road will be United's first League match for three weeks and Bolton's first for a month following postponements caused by the weather and FA Cup dates.

Neither side played last Saturday with Leeds' visit to Liverpool and the Bolton-Coventry game both frozen off and Wanderers also faced a postponement at West Bromwich on 19th January, when Leeds played Forest. Bolton's last League game was on 12th January and ended in a home defeat by Brighton although the Burnden Park club were involved in a fourth round FA Cup tie against Halifax Town a fortnight ago.

Despite winning that game 2-0 and qualifying for a fifth round home tie with holders Arsenal next Saturday, Bolton made a change at the top soon after the Halifax match dismissing manager Ian Greaves.

The job has since been advertised but until filled, former Middlesbrough and Doncaster manager Stan Anderson has been put in temporary charge.

Last season's game between the teams at Elland Road saw United achieve their best League win of the season, 5-1. The Leeds goals came from Trevor Cherry, a Frank Gray penalty, Arthur Graham, Carl Harris and substitute John Hawley with Neil McNab scoring for Wanderers.

The points were shared in the game at Burnden Park earlier this season. Eddie Gray scored for Leeds from the penalty spot with Allardyce replying for Bolton in a match in which both sides had a man sent off, Brian Flynn for Leeds, McNab for Bolton.

Arthur Graham scores United's third goal in the 5-1 win against Bolton at Elland Road last season.

ANFIELD VISIT

United's League game at Liverpool, postponed last Saturday, will be re-arranged for a date later in the season. At the moment there's no clue about when the match will be played but full details, when available, will be published in the United match programme.

A LONG WAIT

Wanderers' only points away from home this season was in their first away game of the season, a 0-0 draw at Liverpool. Since August, Bolton have gone down eleven times on their travels and have won only one match at home, 2-1 against Southampton.

Only sixteen League goals in their 24 games so far gives a pointer to the team's problems and Neil Whatmore is easily Bolton's leading scorer so far with eight goals in League and Cup games. Next in the scorers' list comes Willie Morgan with 3 followed by Alan Gowling and Roy Greaves 2, and Neil McNab, Mike Walsh, Sam Allardyce, Chris Thompson and Mike Carter with one goal each.

TODAY'S REFEREE

Peter Willis from Meadowfield, County Durham, is today's referee at Elland Road and he has been a frequent visitor to Leeds in previous seasons. Mr. Willis is a police officer with responsibilities for road safety in Durham and before taking up refereeing he played football for Northumberland and was an amateur with Newcastle.

He went on the Football League list after handling games in the Northern League.

NAMES IN THE NEWS

Trevor Cherry was on international duty this week, joining up with Ron Greenwood's squad for the European Championship game with Eire at Wembley. Arthur Graham was in Jock Stein's party for the match with Portugal at Hampden Park, but this game was postponed.

United's reserve striker Steve Balcombe is set to win his second cap for the Welsh youth side next week. He is in their party for the away international in Northern Ireland (see today's Chatterbox feature).

Brian Flynn's three month absence from the United League side was due to end at Liverpool last week before the game was called off. It meant a further wait for Brian who needs to make one more appearance to reach 100 first team games for the club.

Striker Alan Curtis (pictured opposite) is back at his Bramhope home after hospital treatment following his injury in the Cup game against Forest last month. It will be some while before Alan can start training again.

Kevin Hird, who shares with Terry Connor, the role of United's leading scorer so far this season, is our cover feature this afternoon. Kevin, celebrates a birthday next week and in a few weeks time completes his first year at Elland Road following his move from Blackburn Rovers last season.

CHATTER BOX

WHY THE KOP IS EMPTY

The club apologises to supporters for any inconvenience caused by the closure of the Kop at today's game. This decision was taken because of the action of a mindless minority at the Nottingham Forest League match who threw items from the Kop onto the pitch.

Leeds United have stated that areas from where missiles of any kind are thrown onto the pitch will automatically be closed for the following game and we repeat this warning today.

The club is determined to drive the small number of trouble makers away from Elland Road and make the ground a safe and trouble-free area for genuine supporters of all ages.

In an effort to achieve this, the club is offering a £100 reward to anyone who can provide information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person throwing missiles.

We would also request all supporters to refrain from obscene chanting.

Looking back at the Forest match it could be that the throwing of missiles from the Kop during the first half contributed to the team's defeat in so far as Forest's equaliser was scored in the time added on by the referee for the delay.

The club has the backing of all authorities in the action it is taking to stamp out hooliganism and we are sure that the majority of genuine supporters will co-operate with the club in its attempt to keep the hooligan element away from Elland Road.

SOCCER SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday morning soccer school being organised by Bobby Collins with help from a number of United players past and present attracted around 300 youngsters at its first session held at the Holt Park Sports Centre, Leeds 16, a few Sundays ago.

In addition to the youngsters more than 150 parents, relatives and friends turned up to watch the kids being put through their paces. Guest teacher at the first teach-in was United star Eddie Gray. The course is aimed at youngsters aged between 6 and 16.

STEVE'S DOUBLE

Reserve team striker Steve Balcombe became United's latest international a couple of weeks ago when he played for the Welsh Youth side in an international against Eire at Wrexham.

Steve now holds the unusual distinction of winning caps for two countries. Although born in North Wales, Steve went to school in Southern Ireland and won Irish schoolboy caps before deciding that his international future lies with Wales.

The match at Wrexham ended with honours even in a 0-0 draw.

FAN CLUB NEWS

Gary Hamson, (pictured), John Lukic, Terry Connor and Trevor Cherry are all featured in the latest issue of the Leeds United official Fan Club Newsletter, which was mailed out to members recently.

Issue six of the News Letter also includes members' letters and pen pal requests, the winning entries in the poem competition and a new quiz for members on First Division clubs who have birds as their nicknames.

The official United Fan Club, aimed at young supporters between six and sixteen, was two years old last month and membership is approaching 3,000 spread throughout the world.

If you would like details about joining, write to Julie at the Leeds United Fan Club, Elland Road, Leeds 11.

WELCOME STRANGER!

Assistant manager Maurice Lindley was something of a stranger at United's last home game against Nottingham Forest three weeks ago... It was the first time he had watched the side in action for two months.

Maurice's normal Saturday duties take him off to watch future opponents but with bad weather cutting down the number of games being played three weeks ago, Maurice was able to watch United in action for the first time since the UEFA Cup game with Craiova in early November.

KEVIN'S DAY

This afternoon's programme cover man Kevin Hird will be looking for two points against Bolton as an early birthday present. Kevin celebrates his big day on Monday 11th February. Reserve Peter Daly had a birthday last Tuesday (5th February) and David Harvey's birthday was on Thursday 7th February.

GAME AT SHEFFIELD

For United supporters who live outside Leeds but who like to keep up to date with club statistics, a reminder that the side played a friendly game at Sheffield United on 26th January.

The match ended in a 2-1 win for the Blades with Gary Hamson scoring the Leeds goal against his old team.

United took the opportunity to give a game to two Peruvian players, midfielder Paul Gorriti and striker Victor Hurtado. Both players have since returned home.

The Leeds side at Sheffield was: Lukic, Stevenson, Hampton, Flynn, Hart, Greenhoff, Hurtado, Gorriti, Hankin, Hamson, Graham. Sub: Connor.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS . . .

Continuing our look at team line-ups from a bygone era, the side above was the Leeds United team from the 1920-21 season, United's first season in the League after the breaking up of the Leeds City club.

The photograph was loaned to us by United supporter Mr. A. Ballantine of Hyde Park, Leeds 6, who has quite a collection of old Leeds City and early United photographs.

It is interesting to note that in those days, almost sixty years ago, the club's colours were blue and white stripes and they remained the registered colours up until 1934 when a change was made to blue and gold halves.

We are always interested in featuring old team photographs in the match programme and anyone able to help should contact Bob Baldwin.

IPSWICH AWAY

Ipswich Town were visitors to Elland Road a couple of weeks ago but don't worry, you did not miss a re-arranged game against Bobby Robson's team.

Representatives from Portman Road came to Leeds to take a close look at the Elland Road electronic scoreboard. Ipswich are considering putting in a similar board and they returned to East Anglia impressed with what they had seen.

Incidentally, a reminder that United's away game at Ipswich next month will be played on a Friday night, 14th March, kick-off 7.30 p.m. The switch from Saturday was made to avoid a clash with the League Cup Final at Wembley on the 15th.

If you are in business and would like your company's message flashed up in lights on the United scoreboard, give Bob Baldwin a ring on Leeds 706344.

One local company which has been using the scoreboard this season is Four Seasons (Leisure) Limited of Pudsey who sponsor today's match ball. Four Seasons featured on the scoreboard at the Forest Cup game last month and reported a lot of interest as a result of their advertising for caravan holidays in France.

Turnstile Talk

Last Saturday's bad weather brought the Pools Panel back into action for the second time this winter and left the First Division minus four key games including, of course, United's match at Liverpool.

Two of the Division's clubs that were in action at home however suffered contrasting fortunes so far as turnstile returns went, with Derby County, whose hopes of First Division survival look blacker week by week, claiming their best crowd of the season.

But forty miles away Stoke City faced a vital relegation battle in front of their lowest League gate of the season . . . 14,510 against Bristol City.

Derby's attendance at the Baseball Ground for the visit of Manchester United just edged out their gate for the match against Nottingham Forest in November as the best at the ground this season — 27,783.

Meanwhile Forest were having their second home game of the season postponed and prompting criticism from Norwich manager John Bond about fixture priorities at the City Ground. Bond was bitter that the Forest — Norwich match was off mainly because of the damage caused to the pitch by what he described as a "friendly" played a few days earlier, the "Super Cup" first leg against Barcelona.

With a home game against Middlesbrough also to fit in, Forest face a fixture back log that will not help their European or League Cup challenge over the final months of the season.

Last week's weather was kinder to the Second Division where only one match was lost, the important promotion clash at Roker Park between Sunderland and West Ham. Leicester's win over Newcastle which took them top of the tight promotion race was watched by almost 25,000 at Filbert Street, City's best crowd of the season and easily the best in the Division. Apart from 18,000 at Chelsea, low by Stamford Bridge standards, Division Two attendances were poor last Saturday and Fourth Division Portsmouth, with a gate of 12,000 against Tranmere, had a better crowd than eight clubs in Division Two.

POINTS FROM THE POST . . .

Seven-year-old LEEDS striker Terry Connor scored after 15 minutes at Elland Road, against Nottingham Forest, who gave a debut to loan signing Charlie George.

The cutting above was taken from a Midlands paper and sent to us by United fan Alastair Jacobs of 28 Church Hill, Ironbridge, Shropshire. Alastair commented: "Congratulations to Jimmy Adamson and all concerned for introducing Terry so early!"

"Although the Forest League result was disappointing I found the performance of the younger players very encouraging. I can't afford to make the journey to watch Leeds very often but I have been a faithful fan for nine years now and keep in touch with all the news through the Fan Club and my programme subscription."

DRINKS ALL ROUND

Another United supporter living some distance from Elland Road is Phillip Piller of 147 Church Street, Witham, Essex. Phillip's 'local' is the Yorkshire Grey at Coggeshall and although the landlord and most of the regulars are Arsenal fans, Phillip keeps the Leeds flag flying. "My Leeds United tankard hangs in the middle of about sixty Arsenal tankards and I'm the only member of the Pub darts team who doesn't follow the Gunners. I always wear my Leeds United shirt for darts matches because it brings me luck."

United's results at Highbury last month must have meant drinks all round for this Leeds fan.

DREAM TRIP

A nice letter from Mrs. E. Dennison of 152 High Street, Gilford, Craigavon, Co. Armagh, who helped bring a party of youngsters from Ireland to a recent game at Elland Road. "Apart from seeing Leeds win, it was a dream trip for the youngsters when they saw the name of their club, Gilford United, flashed up on the scoreboard. For the younger boys their first experience of Elland Road was something they will never forget."

QUITE A COLLECTION

Alan Lyon is a Leeds fan who lives at Oatlands, Leschangie, Kenney, Aberdeenshire, in the North East corner of Scotland. Although Alan has never seen United in action he follows the team closely and has a large collection of United programmes and souvenirs stored away. As Alan's photograph shows, his room is piled high with football items and we hope that one day he will get the chance of coming to watch a match at Leeds.

Finally a word of thanks to Jennie and Brenda who help run the Morecambe branch of the United Supporters Club. They do a great job according to Kevin Carr of 16 Buttermere Avenue, Morecambe.

BOLTON WANDERERS

Despite their place in next week's fifth round of the F.A. Cup these are not particularly happy days at Burnden Park with an apparent miracle needed to keep Bolton in the First Division.

Just one win from their first 24 League games, left Wanderers firmly stranded at the bottom of the table and led to the dismissal of manager Ian Greaves last week, forty-eight hours after Bolton had won through to the last sixteen of the F.A. Cup.

The man who has been put in temporary charge of the side is Stan Anderson, formerly manager at Middlesbrough and Doncaster whose job is to try to revive Wanderers' flagging League fortunes.

Considering their current position, Bolton began the season quite brightly with a home draw against Aston Villa and then a point from a goalless draw at Anfield, the only return Bolton have achieved away from Burnden Park before today's visit to Leeds.

Their main problem has been an alarming shortage of goals, only eight all season on their travels and the same number at home before last week's visit of Coventry to Burnden Park.

Life was something of a struggle for Bolton last season on their return to the top flight but a useful spell over the second half of the season took them clear of the danger zone and eventually left Wanderers in seventeenth position, but more importantly ten points clear of trouble.

Their goals last season came almost entirely from Frank Worthington and Alan Gowling who between them, scored 39 of Bolton's 54 League goals. The partnership was split up this season though when Worthington struggled to find his form after spending the summer in the United States. Eventually the former Huddersfield and Leicester striker moved on to Birmingham City and Gowling, with only two goals over the first half of the season, has hit a lean spell.

Despite their grim record of eleven defeats and only one draw from their twelve away games, Bolton's record on their travels shows only two really heavy defeats at Derby and Nottingham Forest. Of the others, there has never been more than two goals in the final result but Bolton have now reached the stage where they must start picking up points, away from home as well as in front of their own fans, if they are to have any chance of keeping First Division football at Burnden Park.

Neil Whatmore, a player with a more than useful scoring record in recent seasons, is their leading scorer. It was his goal that clinched the 2-0 win against Halifax Town in the fourth round of the Cup.

Part of Bolton's problems this season has been a shortage in mid-field although the return of former England Under-21 man Peter Reid after a serious injury should help correct this.

Two big signings, Neil McNab from Tottenham and Len Cantello from West Bromwich, have taken longer than expected to settle in. McNab in fact was made available for transfer a few weeks ago while Cantello who seemed such a good signing at the start of the season, has rarely touched the form he showed at Albion.

Bolton's other new man this season is former Queens Park Rangers and England full back Dave Clement.

One bright note in an otherwise depressing season has been the

form of a number of youngsters. Defender David Burke who can also play in midfield is regarded as a tremendous prospect at Burnden Park, Mike Graham at the back and Mike Carter up front have looked the part at times and big things are expected from England youth international Chris Thompson who has been given his chance this season.

There's plenty of experience in the Wanderers' line-up with skipper Roy Greaves a one club man with almost 500 League appearances to his name. Willie Morgan has already reached that milestone in a career with Burnley (twice) and Manchester United and defenders Paul Jones and Sam Allardyce were key figures in Bolton's climb from the Second Division a couple of years ago.

Goalkeeper Jim McDonagh has done well with Wanderers since a bargain £10,000 move from Rotherham three years ago and Bolton made another shrewd signing when they took utility man Peter Nicholson from Blackpool back in their Third Division days. Nicholson, who can play anywhere in defence, completed 250 League games for the club this season.

Mike Walsh was an ever-present last season and although Polish international Tadeusz Novacki, signed from Legia Warsaw, last season is a newcomer to the English game, he was capped at every level by his country.

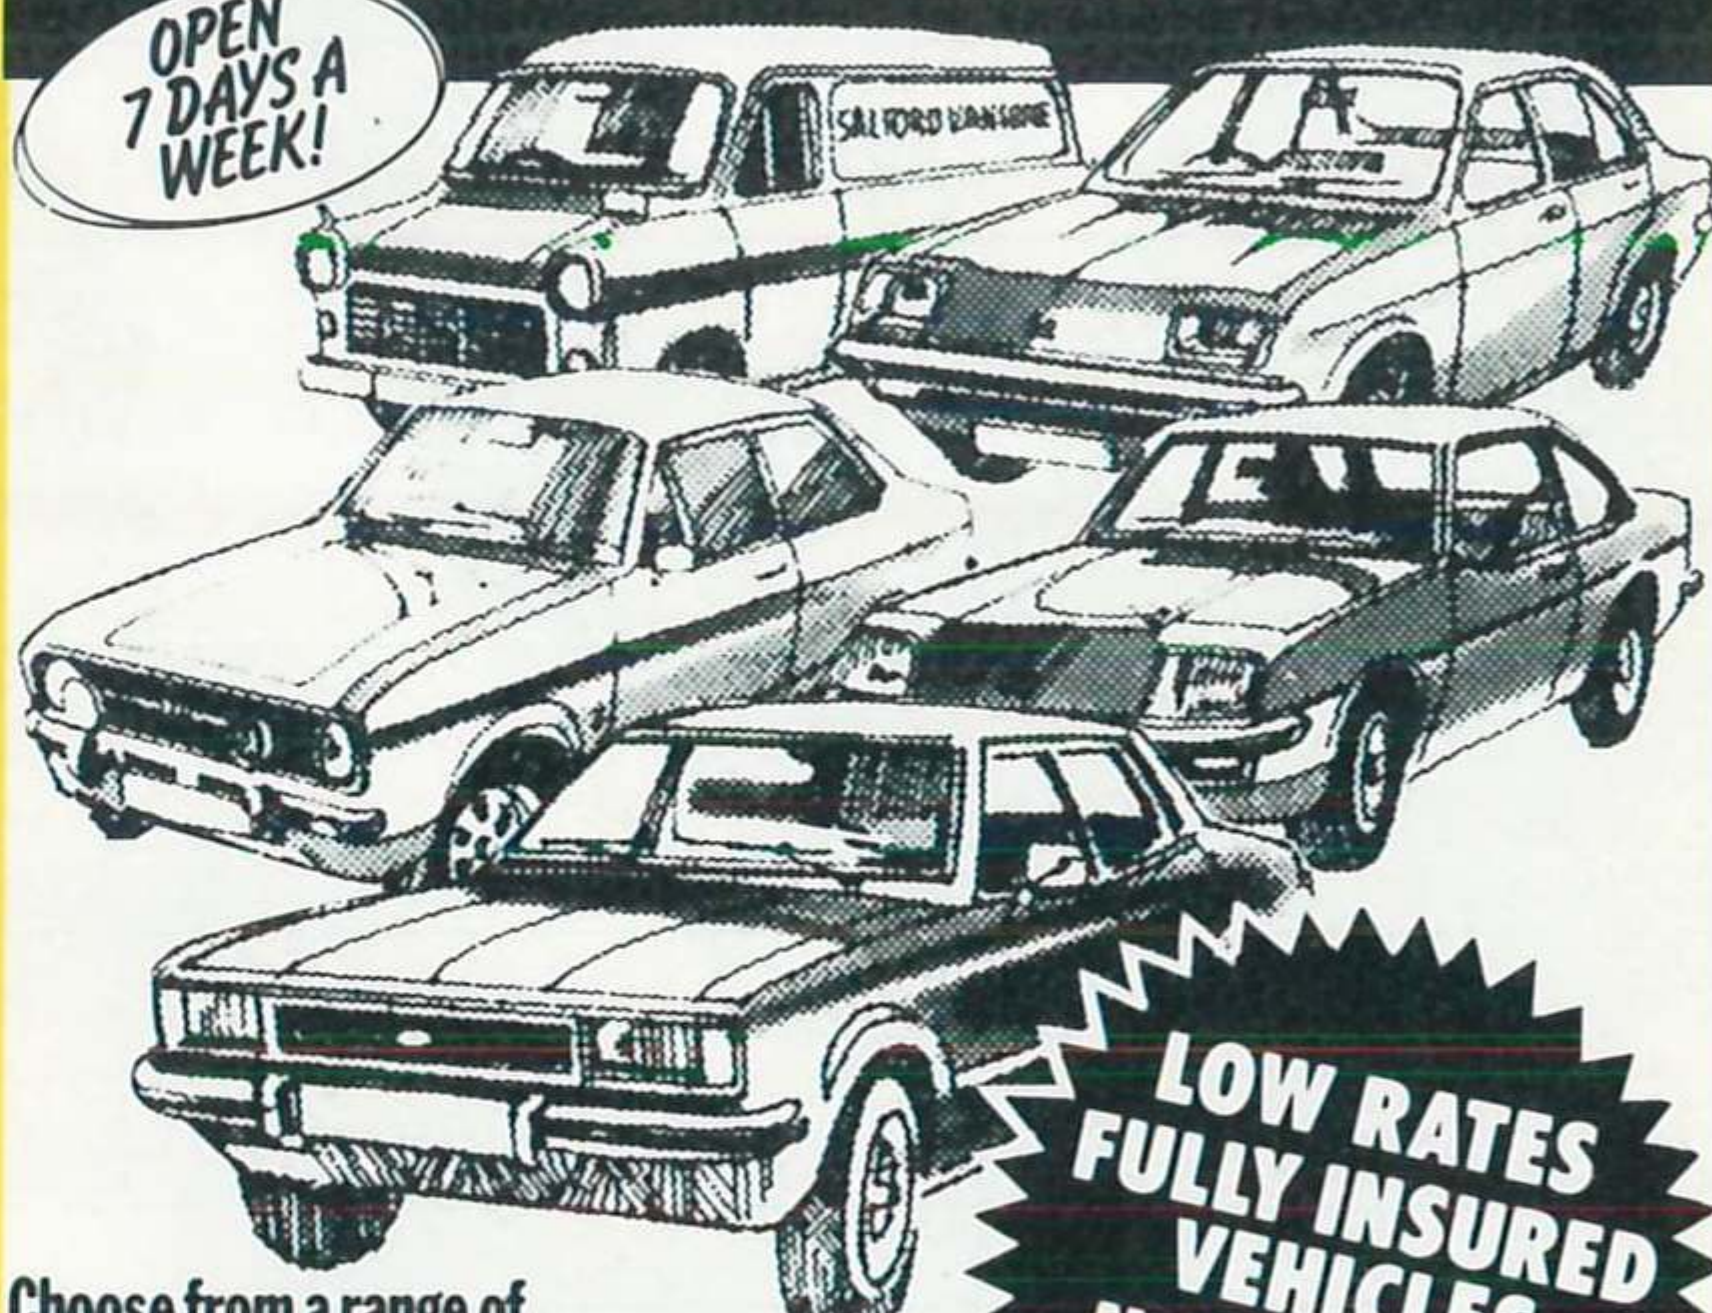

Bolton face a difficult fifth round Cup game at home to holders Arsenal a week today and while dreams of going all the way to Wembley burn brightly at Burnden Park, caretaker manager Stan Anderson would no doubt forfeit Cup glory for an improvement in League fortunes over the next three months.

Eddie Gray, United's scorer in the 1-1 draw at Bolton in September, shows off his style in the match at Burnden Park.

Radio Leeds were flooded out by the biggest entry so far this season in our Mystery Man quiz from the Forest League programme. You did not have to be the world's greatest detective to recognise goalkeeper David Harvey from the photograph in the match programme or the interview on Radio Leeds' Leeds United Show and the majority of more than two hundred entries correctly named David.

The winning entry was sent in by: Maurice Finn, 92 Burley Lodge Road, Leeds 6, and Mr. Finn will be receiving two seat tickets for a match at Elland Road.

Two seat tickets could be coming your way if you can put a name to the United personality pictured here. If you listened to the Leeds United Show last night you'll have picked up quite a few clues about his identity.

Send your entry on a postcard together with your name and address to: The Leeds United Show Competition, BBC Radio Leeds, Broadcasting House, Woodhouse Lane, Leeds LS2 9PN. All cards should be in by next Friday 15th February.

YOUR CHANCE TO WIN WITH THE GOLDEN GOAL

There is £120 to be won at every game this season in our popular Golden Goal competition. You will find your goal time, printed in seconds on the back cover of your match programme and if your number corresponds with the time of the first goal you will win £25.

If you have the time of the last goal you will win £5. There are eight possible winners and every goal between first and last will win £2.

No goal times are printed between 1 and 9 seconds, the start of the first half or 2,701 and 2,709 — the start of the second half . . . if a goal is scored in these periods the programme holder with 10 seconds or 2,710 seconds is the winner.

If it's a goalless draw the programme numbered 0000 will win £30 and if there's just one goal in the game, the winner will receive £30.

All prize money will be paid out on goal times in an abandoned game including when the score stands at 0-0. Winning times will be announced at the game and publicised on the scoreboard and winners should claim their prizes as soon as possible after the match from the Pools Office or no later than mid-day on the following Monday for Saturday matches.

The goal time recorded by the official competition time keeper is final and no dispute of the time can be entered into.

The competition is timed using watches supplied by Owen and Robinson Ltd., Of Albion Street, Leeds 1.

spotlight on the reserves

KEVIN SEGGIE

There are not many youngsters in the game who have found themselves on the substitute's bench for a European tie before they have signed as full professionals with a League club.

Young goalkeeper Kevin Seggie sampled the atmosphere of United's UEFA Cup tie against Valetta in October a couple of weeks before becoming a professional at Elland Road and was also in the Leeds party for the match in Rumania against Craicva.

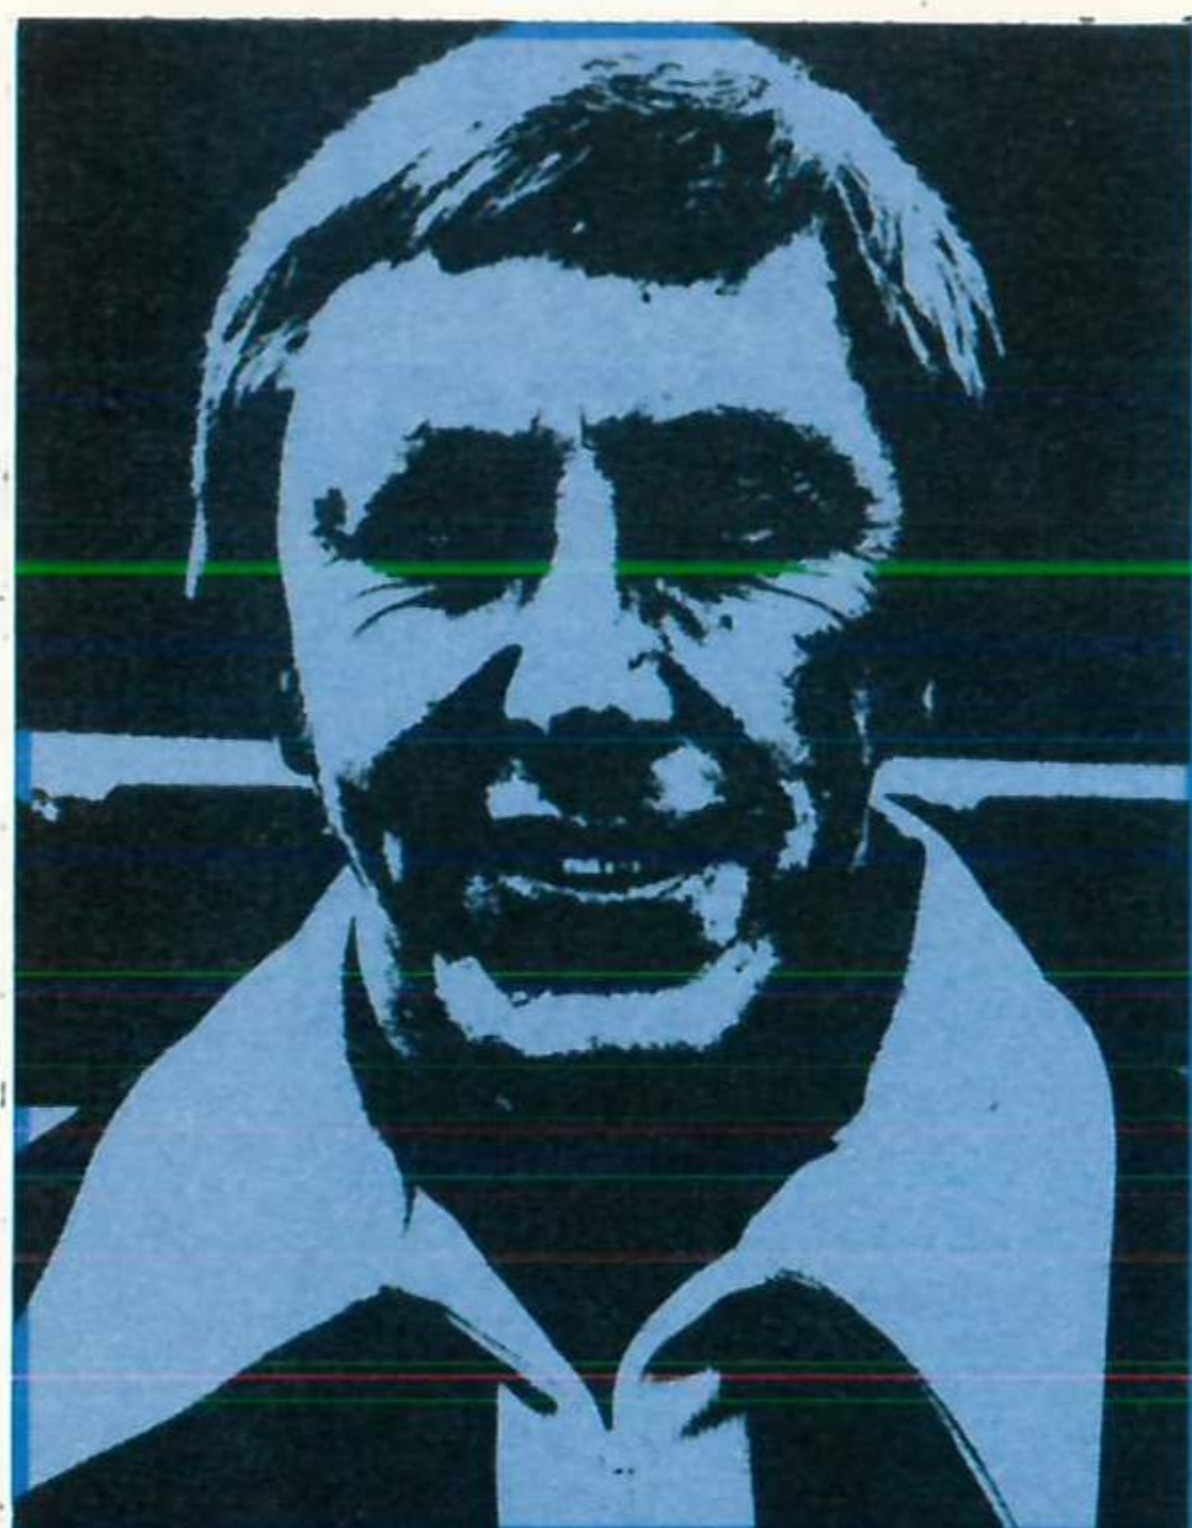

Kevin comes from Bury St. Edmunds in Suffolk and joined the Elland Road apprentice ranks last May. He made such a good impression in the junior and reserve sides that he became a full professional in October and is regarded as a great prospect.

Both the reserves and juniors had a blank Saturday last week when the home Central League match with Sheffield Wednesday and the Northern Intermediate League fixture against Chesterfield were postponed because of the conditions.

The reserves last match was at Anfield three weeks ago and ended in a 2-0 defeat. Conditions were not easy on a bone hard pitch and both Liverpool's goals came before half time. "We tightened up our game a lot and played well in the second half," said coach Peter Hardcastle. The pick of the Leeds side were goalkeeper Henry Smith who made some good saves, and defenders Duncan Reynard and Neil Firm.

United's juniors maintained their good run with a 2-1 win at Huddersfield three weeks ago, the goals coming from Fozzard and Butterworth. But after four wins in a row, the run came to an end with a 0-1 defeat at home by Sheffield Wednesday a fortnight ago.

The reserves have re-arranged one of their postponed fixtures, the away match at Stoke City from 15th December. This will now be played at the Victoria Ground on Tuesday 18th March.

PEACOCK PROFILE

This afternoon's visit of Bolton to Elland Road should bring back a few memories for United first team coach Syd Farrimond who spent thirteen years as a player at Burnden Park, making almost four hundred first team appearances between 1958 and 1971.

"I think most people in the game have a soft spot for their former clubs and when I'm looking down a list of results on a Saturday night I always check how teams like Bolton and Sunderland have got on," says Syd who next month celebrates twelve months on the United coaching staff.

Syd's career at Burnden Park started a few months before Bolton won the F.A. Cup in 1958. "We finished fourth in the First Division in one of my early seasons and after being relegated we just missed out on promotion so although I never won any major honours I enjoyed my time with Wanderers and I've always liked the involvement in the game which is one of the reasons I turned to coaching when my playing days were over.

"As a player I didn't particularly want to stay in the game because I saw so many people change when they switched from playing to management. But when I was at Tranmere under Ron Yeats I had a spell looking after the reserves and when the time came to hang up my boots John Quinn offered me a coaching job at Halifax.

"It was good grounding at the Shay because with a small staff you were involved in everything and after John, I worked there with Alan Ball senior. Then Jimmy Adamson asked me to join him at Sunderland looking after the reserves and then I came to Leeds."

Syd admits that he likes the day to day involvement with players, particularly youngsters. "You get a tremendous kick when you see a lad you've helped develop break through into the first team," he points out.

"There have been a lot of changes while I've been involved in the game. Although organisation within a side is probably better today I don't think there are so many good individual players now as twenty years or so ago. Perhaps the fact that there are so many distractions today for youngsters has something to do with it. When I was a lad every spare minute was spent kicking a ball about."

Syd says he is disappointed that United did not make their mark in the Cups this season and adds: "We had a spell when we struggled and I've never liked making excuses by blaming injuries or the loss of key players.

But there are still three months of the season to go and there's a place in Europe to play for, so there's an important spell of matches coming up for us."

CAPTAIN'S CORNER

Injuries are something all players dread because there's nothing worse than being out of action, particularly if you are on the sidelines for a long time.

Fortunately I've managed to stay fairly clear of serious injuries during my career but we've suffered a few lengthy lay offs this season and Alan Curtis has been missing from the ground for the last few weeks after the bad knock he got in the Cup game against Forest last month.

Alan spent a while in hospital but when I called in to see him he was reasonably cheerful and looking forward to getting back home. He is still in plaster but is hoping to have this removed soon and we all hope he'll be back at the ground before too long. Our reserve full back Neil Parker has just returned to Elland Road after a lengthy spell out of the game and I know Neil is delighted to be back after weeks of sitting around with his leg in plaster.

I joined up with the England squad earlier this week. Although we'd already qualified for the European finals, the match with Eire at Wembley was an important one as part of the build up towards Italy this summer.

It was the first time the lads had been together with Ron Greenwood since the draw was made for the finals and although I think we would have preferred keeping away from Italy, there's a great feeling in the squad that we can do well.

We've a friendly against Spain before we meet them in the finals and although Belgium put some good results together to qualify, they are probably the weakest side in the group.

Today's visitors to Elland Road, Bolton need to start picking up points if they are to stand a chance of staying in the First Division and I imagine they'll put all thoughts of next week's Cup game against Arsenal out of their heads this afternoon.

The draw for the next round was reasonably kind for the remaining First Division clubs and three of the sides I picked out before the third round as possible finalists are still going strong. You may remember I named Tottenham as one of these. They had a problem getting past Swindon last week but I've still a sneaking feeling that this could be Spurs' season for getting to Wembley.

THE GRUMBLEWEEDS SHOW

United's Sports and Souvenir Shop had a visit from the Grumbleweeds a few days ago and the quartet who are all keen United supporters caused a fair amount of chaos when they decided to go behind the counter of the Elland Road Shop and serve some customers.

The Grumbleweeds — Maurice, Robin, Graham and Albert — took a particular liking to the display of United V-neck jumpers which also caught the eye of customer Mr. Stewart Thorpe of Batley.

United jumpers come in a choice of colours and sizes and include the Peacock crest. The girls in the shop will be please to show you the full range after this afternoon's game.

Try this for size... the Grumbleweeds get a new job serving customer Mr. Stewart Thorpe in the United Shop.

The best Lotteries in Leeds... that's the view of the Grumbleweeds after hearing about the Leeds and United Lotteries.

The Grumbleweeds who are one of the country's top cabaret acts were also interested in the success of the Leeds and United Lotteries which pay out thousands of pounds in instant cash prizes to local winners every week.

Among the latest names on the winners' list are: T. P. Trencher, Tong Street, Bradford 4; Mrs. B. Hirst, Yeadon; P. Crowther, Farsley and Tracy Tansey, Morley... all £1,000 winners, T. Farrar of Leeds 10 and Mrs. B. J. Long of Yeadon — two more big-money prize winners.

Leeds and United Lottery Tickets are on sale all over Leeds from newsagents and shops and also from the kiosks around the ground on match days.

The Lottery Office, telephone Leeds 771170, will be pleased to provide full details about how to become an agent and all the great benefits involved like commission on every ticket sold and bonus payouts for selling big winners. The Grumbleweeds agreed... the Leeds and United Lotteries are the tops!

TICKET TALK

Brighton pay their first ever visit to Elland Road as a Division One side a fortnight today, 23rd February, kick-off 3 p.m. Alan Mullery's side struggled to find their First Division feet over the early months of the season but they have pulled away from the danger zone in the last couple of months and have quite an impressive away record with three wins and three draws on their travels so far.

Peter Ward has been scoring goals regularly this season and the signing of Ray Clarke from the Continent has given the side a boost up front. Brian Horton does a useful job for Brighton in midfield and at the back there are good reports about the form of youngster Steve Foster and former Villa defender John Gregory.

Seat tickets for our game against Brighton are available now from the main Ticket Office at the ground.

United supporters travelling to next week's match at Manchester City are advised to use turnstiles 55-56B in the Kippax Stand, admission price £1.10. Our game at Maine Road is not all-ticket.

GOLDEN GOAL

Check your Golden Goal number on the back page of this afternoon's match programme with the winning numbers that will be flashed on the scoreboard and announced during the game. There are cash prizes to be won and full details of the competition appear in the programme on the Quizspot page.

DAVID'S DIARY DATES

There are a couple of functions being arranged next week for David Harvey's Testimonial. On Tuesday 12th February, the Horsforth Branch of the Supporters Club have a night planned in honour of David and on Thursday 14th February, David will be special guest at the South Leeds Working Mens' Club.

MORE PRAISE

Latest members of the rapidly expanding Terry Connor Appreciation Society are former England star Malcolm Macdonald and current England ace Trevor Francis.

Super Mac described Terry as the best youngster he had seen since Trevor Francis burst on the scene with Birmingham a few years ago while Francis made a point of picking out Terry for special mention after the League game with Forest at Elland Road three weeks ago... not bad for a youngster who was a hopeful schoolboy player less than twelve months ago.
